

Ethics Board Vacancy

The City of Langley currently has an opening for its new Ethics Training Board. Both candidates must be a resident of the City of Langley. The Board provides ethics orientation and training programs for officials, employees and consultants to the City; provide advisory opinions about the application of the City's code of ethics at the request of officials, employees, or consultants; review complaints and recommend to the Mayor or City Council as appropriate for final action; and maintain records of all advisory opinions, reviews and recommendations, and prepare an annual report to the City Council on its activities.

This is a volunteer position, appointed by the Mayor. Regular terms of service are three years, beginning terms will be staggered in length. Must be able to pass a background check. Automatic disqualifiers include:

1. Any prior felony convictions.
2. Any crime committed that would require someone to register as a sex offender.
3. Any crime of moral turpitude.
4. Anyone currently under court ordered supervision for any crime.
5. Any misdemeanor committed within the previous five years.
6. Anyone who is currently the respondent in any domestic violence related court order.
7. Anyone who is currently prohibited by federal or state law from possessing a firearm.
8. Anyone who has received a less than honorable discharge from any branch of the U.S Military.

All interested persons please send a letter of application to Debbie Mahler, Director of Finance/City Clerk, City of Langley, P.O. Box 366, Langley, WA 98260 or email clerk@langleywa.org
