

City of
Langley Washington

Reduced Island Transit Service

Due to the Coronavirus, Island Transit has experienced an estimated 75% reduction in ridership. Therefore, starting on April 6th, service reductions are being implemented to conserve agency resources as well as to protect the traveling public and transit staff. Island Transit asks its riders to limit their trips to only essential trips. More information about these changes can be found on Island Transit's coronavirus web page.

Craig Cyr

Island Transit Board Member